Rough Wenther Struggle. PORT WASHINGTON, L. I., Sept. 19.— With a strong wind from the southeast raising whitecaps on the surface of Manhasset Bay sixteen yachts of the star class ventured out in a race to Captain's Island and return, a distance of twenty-eight miles, at 10:20 o'clock this morning. The race had been scheduled for 8 o'clock, but at that time a drizzling rain caused a postponement and over two hours later the committee least williams at Forest Hills, 5—7, 6—2, 6—2, 6—2, 7—5, 10—8.

Lost to Williams at Forest Hills, 5—7, 6—2, 6—2, 7—5, 10—8. Atlantic and Horseshoe Harbor Yacht clubs and the New York Athletic Club were represented. Five of the sixteen starters did not finish, but it was not because of the high wind. One was disabled. Rounding Execution Light the mast on Faraway, owned and sailed by Commander A. B. Fry of the New York Athletic Club, broke and the boat was towed back to the Port Washington Yacht Club.

his only serious challenger for it would be Behr, based on his victory at Seabright. McLoughlin earned his revenge for this defeat in the East-West matches after the champlonship.

Next in order unquestionably comes Behr, but the other positions in the first ten are less certain. There are six places to fill in the mystic circle, and the men who have earned the best right to these positions are Griffin. Alexander, Pell. Washburn, Church, Niles, Hail LeRoy and Mathey. Of these I should be inclined to place Griffin fifth. Alexander sixth, Pell seventh, Washburn circle, the word was east for most of the day leading all marks on Starboard hand. Last year, after the season had closed, there were two distinct camps among the followers of the game—those who sided with McLoughlin and those who sided with McLoughlin and those who believed that Williams should be rated first. The struggle was carried to the ranking committee, and finally over their heads to the U. S. N. L. T. A open meeting, but the men who believed that the champion should be ranked first simply because he was the champion were finally turned down, and the belief of the ranking committee that the record for the whole season should govern the award prevailed.
